

Positive Discipline Mini Series on SIBLING CONFLICT

How to prevent rivalry and manage conflict in your family

June 16 & 30, 2015, 6:30 – 8:30 pm

This two-night mini-series is focused on sibling conflict. In person classes held on June 16th and 30th, with home practice, reading, and a virtual check-in – Q&A on June 23rd at 12 pm.

In this workshop, parents will:

- Discover the 2 main reasons siblings fight
- Learn 4 things parents commonly do that exacerbate sibling rivalry and what to do instead
- Experience the difference between traditional methods of discipline and positive discipline when it comes to managing sibling conflict
- Gain practical tools that you can use immediately to encourage more peaceful, cooperative sibling relationships
- Get help managing real-life sibling conflicts

The Sibling Mini Series will be co-facilitated by Marcilie Smith Boyle, MBA, CPCC and Lisa Fuller, MSW, CPCC.

Where: Musically Minded Academy, 5776 Broadway Terr., Oakland

Cost: Early Bird (register by June 2) $105/person; $95/2nd caregiver. After June 2: $115/person; $105/2nd caregiver.
